Dear Sir,

Our Consul at Brussels informs us we have read your communication of August 27 in error, this we much regret, had your Consul in London told us so when he saw your letter & said our version of it was correct, we should of course waited your investigation of the Photo, to which you referred; may we ask you if you still refuse delivery let us know, & we will instruct our carriers to return.

Again assuring you of our regret. Having given you trouble, it's an error on our part, that will cost us & cause two ways.

Yours Truly

"J. B. Kunderman"

Dear Sir.

Picture

We thank you for your favour & have communicated with our client, who set the price by our valuation, & as they are desirous to sell would a price tempt your committee. We know public bodies seldom make offers & after due consideration it to clear up an estate they say would £50 tempt you. If not we will arrange later to have it returned.

Assuring you of our appreciation of your consideration & trouble taken in the matter.

Yrs Truly

Gilbert & Gilbert
