Gentlemen:-

Introduced by chance a master-piece by Colyn de Coter has been brought to my attention. Judgement Day - in four parts two of which are hung in the Pinopothek Munich - The part Damnation is owned by a client of mine who wishes to dispose of it at a reasonable offer - The painting M. 1,07 x 0,57 is certified by Geheimrath Max E. Friedlaender and Excelling v Bode Berlin; it is in perfect condition. Also listed in Catalogue Royal Prussian library (art) Book 4 - 1910 - also Book 7 Thieme Becker Art Lexicon - Obo. C. de Coter also

Catalog. N. Rickards Museum I Book 1924 illustrated
It is further listed in G. M. Friedlaender latest art work 4th book published Paul Cassirer - Berlin - Last Thursday a committee appointed by the City of Cologne to purchase paintings etc. for the City Museum (Wallraf Rickart) made an offer but a final arrangement has not been agreed upon up to this writing. In the interim an offer has been made by Holland (12000 - gulden) plus 50% of the amount realised above that sum.

If you are interested the writer will be pleased to give further details.

Very truly

Hedra-Mach.
